

All meetings are at 7:30 pm in The Thomas Hughes Memorial Hall (small hall), Uffington, unless otherwise stated. Visitors are very welcome, £2 per meeting

- February 2nd Beautiful Clematis; they are not so difficult. Illustrated talk by member Liz Welch, who has a large collection of Clematis in her garden at Black Bourton.
- March 1st Robins in our gardens (and elsewhere!) A talk by author & naturalist Andrew Lack.
- March 3rd
Saturday 10.00 am Pruning of Clematis: a practical guide at Liz Welch's garden, Bridge House, Black Bourton near Bampton, OX18 2PD. Followed by light lunch and social. Cost: £5.00.
Spaces limited to 8.
- April 5th The glories of Cow Parsley and its relatives. Lyn Miles will give an illustrated talk on this fascinating group of plants.
- May 19th
Saturday
2.30 - 4.00 pm
NOTE TIME Plant Sale – Our main fundraising event, Bring plants for sale (50/50 if wanted) and bring all of your friends. We need your support.
- June 2nd
Saturday
10.00 am Visit – Cirencester Gardens. Barton Mill (designer garden in progress) and Howard Moore's vegetable allotment (on the Bathurst Estate). Lunch at Corinium Hotel, where those booking lunch may park. There will be a maximum number of 20. Other gardens are available to visit in the area after lunch. Car sharing
- July 5th
7.00 pm Visit to Mr & Mrs Urquhart's garden, Wayside, Kidlington, OX5 2BX. ¼ acre garden specialising in ferns, with woodland plants & hardy perennials. Cost £3.00 max. Car sharing.
- August 2nd Visit – To be confirmed
- September 6th Salvias and other late summer plants by John Graham of Steventon Road Nursery. There will be plants for sale.
- October 4th Roses: their care, history, cultivation and pruning by Thomas Sanday, retired managing director of John Sanday (ROSES) Ltd.
- November 1st Bees and how gardeners can help them. A talk by Bisi, who will bring samples of honey from all over the world.
- December 6th AGM followed by Foliage for Christmas: a talk by member Judy Kirwan to inspire us with new ideas for decorations.