217/21	Cllrs Pilchowski and Banks.
	ITEM 2 – DECLARATIONS OF INTEREST
218/21	None.
	ITEM 3 – FINANCE
219/21	To approve the invoice from Pepler Fine Fencing for the installation of kissing gates on Footpath 19 Cllr Oldnall had circulated a note about the project. Cllr Jenkins noted that both the quote and the invoice stated ‘terms: due on completion’. The gates had been ordered and paid for and Mr Pepler had stored them for us. Installation was completed quickly and professionally. The landowners were happy with the installation. It was confirmed that the invoice was as per the quote. Cllr Oldnall agreed that the project had been well executed. The payment of £10,680 was approved. Proposed Cllr Puddicombe, Seconded Cllr Oberman. RESOLVED. Clerk to set the payment up on the bank. Cllr Oldnall to authorise. Cllr Jenkins noted that TOE required a press release on the project; he had drafter one which had been reviewed. It was reported that the final tidy of the Waylands footpath would be completed by the end of the week. Afternote: Subsequently delayed by Covid infection.	Clerk/MO
